UCLan Research Forum

16-17 May

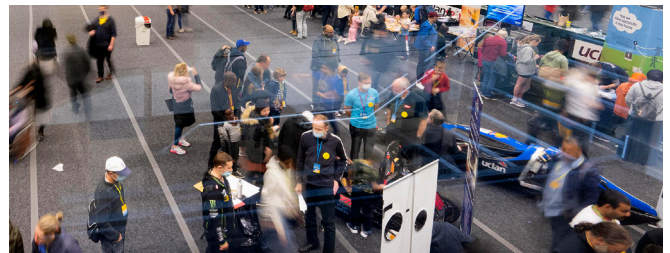

The University of Central Lancashire (UCLan) is super excited to invite you to our first-ever Research Forum on the 16 and 17 of May for Year 9-11 groups.

This isn't just any event; it's a two-day extravaganza that shines a spotlight on the wonders of research in all its forms.

From the mysteries of ancient civilizations to the latest trends in digital marketing, the social power of art, and the future of healthcare, there's a whole world of knowledge waiting for you. Ever wondered how laws evolve or why leaves are green? Let's explore together!

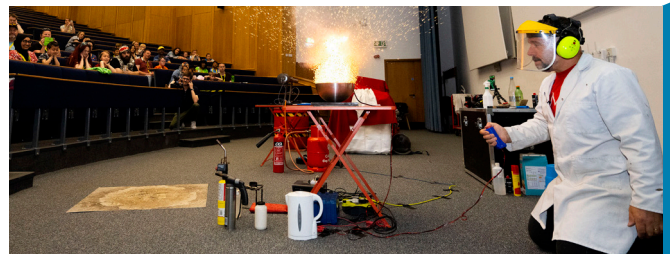

This is more than just an event; it's a journey into the heart of human knowledge and creativity. Whether you're passionate about history, art, law, business, chemistry, engineering or just eager to learn something new, step into a world where your curiosity leads the way.

UCLan's Research Forum is where your ideas meet the future.

Explore Interactive Stands:
